THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Elvents of Yesterday.

A. Jama has been reappointed a special policeman. The resignation of Patrick Gates, of the police force, has been accepted. The receipts of the collector of taxes yestor-day was over $14,000, all on the account of the second half of tax due this month.

Company B. Capitol City Guards, Cant. W. B. Gray, will give an exhibition drill this evening in front of the Arlington hotel. A thief entered the printing office of J. W. Searle, 200 Pennsylvania avenue, Capitol hill, yesterday and stole a valuable camee ring.

Thomas Birney was yesterday excused for the term as a juror in the circuit court, and Charles Graff accepted as a petit juror in the criminal court.

The case of Louis Karcher, charged with the murder of John W. Grimes on the 26th of March last, will be commenced in the criminal court to-day.

The divorce sait brought by Amory Shat-tuck against Mary S. Shattuck was discon-tinued yesterday, upon the complainant paying costs and alimony to date of the dis-continuous. ontinuance.

The following trustees of the Riggs Fire Insurance company, of this city, were re-cleated yesterday afternoon: M. W. Beveridge, E. S. Hutchinson, Wm. H. Mor-rison, N. W. Burchell, Thomas Hyde, John Sherman, T. M. Hanson, John Jay Knox, and Wm. S. Thompson.

Sparkling Water Division, Sons of Temper-nce, of East Washington, has engaged Odd 'cllows' hall, where it will meet in the future. The first meeting in the new quarters was held on Tuesday evening. Remarks were made by Messrs. Wm. J. Webb, H. Beach, H. W. Cole, T. F. Jones, James Davis, Mrs. Mills, and Mrs. Sagre. and Mrs. Sayre.

SIMPLY BARBAROUS.

A Chinese Orchestra Discoursing Music of a Former Age and Heathen Generatlon. The monotonous rattle of the washboard and the muffled bumping of flatirous were suspended for several hours yesterday afternoon in the laundry of Sam Lee, 529 Teath street northwest. Sam and his two assistants, all full-fielded Chinamen, with long pigtails down their backs, have recently organized a Chinese orchestra, and they were organized a Chinese orchostra, and they were rehearsing when a REPUBLICAN reporter entered the room. Sam Lee and one of his washermen were playing the same kind of instruments. They were made at Hong Kong, and looked as though they might be third cousins of the American banjo. The Chinese call them kayahrdis. They have very long necks, four strings, and tambourine bodies, smaller in proportion than that of the banjo. The body is covered with several wrappings of a poculiar kind of celestial cloth. The third laundryman played a demoralized how over a rickety old fiddle. Sam led the orchestra by patting his right foot on the floor, bobbing his head up and down, and blinking his almond-shaped eyes. The combined noise of the three instruments down, and blinking his almond-shaped eyes. The combined noise of the three instruments could certainly not be construed into music. Three small children of mischievous habits, left alone in a room with the Kayahrdl and fiddle, would have been equally successful from a modern musical standpoint. The Kayahrdl players picked the strings in a trum-trum-trum manner, and in very alow measure, while the fiddles scraped out a series of ear distressing and extremely discordant sounds. The Chinamen appeared to sppreciate their own efforts, however, because they played continuously for hours, and grinned approvingly at each other at intervals.

In Our Boys' Department we have had the most flattering success. It has been enlarged to double its former size, and the sales have kept peac in proportion. Eiseman Bros., corner 7th and E streets.

Meridian Hill Lots.

Messrs. Duncanson Bros., auctioneers, con-tinued the sale of lots on Meridian Hill Wednesday afternoon, with the following result: Lot 9, block 17, to A. H. Nixon for 13; cents per square foot. Lot 8, same block, to same purchaser, for 12? cents per square foot. Lot 4, block 10, to M. M. Lewis for 15; cents per square foot. Lot 23, block 12, to A. F. Fardon for 8; cents per square foot. Lot 24, same block, to F.W. Stone for 8; cents per square foot.

This sale will be continued on Friday, May 16, 1884, nt 4:30 o'clack p. m., and parties who wish to secure a desirable building lot, as well as those looking for a good investment, should take advantage of this opportu-nity. The property is sold with good title, Defining Rallroad Routes.

Senator Ingalls will endeavor to have the bill defining railway routes in this city amended when it comes before the senate, as it does not meet his approval. The Baltimore and not meet his approval. The isaltimore and Obic company is very anxious to get through the city, and he sees no reason why they should not be granted the privilege. A prominent citizen of South Washington stated yesterday that the bill reported has aroused a good deal of indignation in that section, and that efforts would be made to have it amended.

The High School.

The Wednesday miscellaneous exercises at the High school yesterday consisted of a review of essays in the several historical secview of essays in the several historical sec-tions. I am exercise is the eighth and last of the saries for the current school year. The essays of this writing are above the usual standard of excellence, the first year class especially showing marked improve-ment. The selected essays will form a part of the exercises for "Public Wednesday," which occurs this quarter on May 28.

The Continental Guards.

Capt. Geo. F. Timms, the newly elected commanding officer of the Washington Coutinentals, caused general order No. 1 (new series) to be issued yesterday. It announces that an adjourned and important business meeting will be held on Friday evening. A well attended battalion drill was held hast night. Capt. Timms states that the corps having been reorganized, it is the intention of the officers and men to settle down to usiness in dead carnest.

Licensed to West.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: Cassius M. Upton, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Carrie A. Blodget, of this city; Samuel B. Wright, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mary F. Conway, of this city; John Johnson and Lizzie Parker; Chas, J. Switzer and Eva C. Dowd; P. C. Thompson and Annie John-son, both of Suitland, Md.; Samuel H. Ramby and Faran and Fannie Selby.

Anxions to Know. Building Inspector Entwiste has notified Mr. H. A. Willard that before repairing the damage done to Willard's hotel he should like to make an examination, as several changes in the reconstruction of the ballding may be required.

Indictments Returned. The grand jury yesterday returned indict ments against the following parties: Francis I. Monrote, alias Frank Mourote, larceny; Thomas Holloway, larceny; James Lawson, forgery; William G. Nicholas and William M. Epbertson, libel.

New Buildings. Building permits were issued yesterday to Samuel Norment to build four brick dwellings on the corner of Second and Canal streets southwest to cost $1,000: W. J. Brown, to make repairs at 1319 Vermont avenue northwest, to cost $400.

Mr. W. R. Bobison, Baridaboro, Ga., writes, under date Jan. B. 1881; "I am getting on finely, the filter is gradually healing. I test that Swift a specific will ours the harrible cases: which has been feeding on me for over 2 years."

Mr. O. G. Barran, of Banning, Ga., writes, dated March 3, 1881; "The soreness has all gone out of the Cancer, and my health has greatly improved. I have taken six bottles of Swift's Successful for a Skin Cancer, which I have had for years."

LEADERS!

The Palais Royal gives away one of the "secrets of the trade,, when it states that "leaders" mean those specialties which every store makes in each department (by selling a certain article at very low price) in order to attract custom.

PALAIS ROYAL "LEADERS"

The "leaders" in above department are our 68c Silk Mousquetaire Gloves, also 65c Silk Mitts, both of which come in twenty-two different, colors, and are sold elsewhere at 98c. Our 25c Rousquetaire Liste Gloves are usually retailed at 39c.

Gloves.

Parasols.

The "leaders" are Satin Coaching Parasols, in every new color, improved shape, paragon frames, and imported sticks. The price, $1.59, is just 16c chesper than the chespest of other stores, and the quality is considerably better. The new Shaded Slik Parasols at $2.55, sold by most stores at $4.25, The "leader" in Umbrellas is our Silk Sun Umbrella at $1.65, which is sold by the cheapest of our competitors for $1.75. Our 26-inch Silk Umbrella, with paragon frames, at $1.98 cannot be purchased elsewhere under $2.50.

Handkerchiefs.

Our "leaders" are our 25c Handkerchiefs. We show them in finest shear linen, with colored hemstitched borders; also in fine linen, with white hand embroidery, and for Gents we show them in plain white or fancy colored borders in the "Elephant" and other new styles. Above Handkerchiefs retail usually for 48c each.

Jerseys.

Our great "leader" is our $2.98 Jersey, which is tailor finished, and undoubtedly the finest fitting Jersey in the market. Anyway, we defy any of our competitors to offer such a Jersey under $4.25.

Corsets.

The "lender" is the well known "Bridal" Cor sets, which retail all over the United States for $1. Our price is 60c.

Hosiery.

Our grand "leader" is our 49c Lisle Thread Hou Other stores may sell 49c Lisle Hose, but the quality we offer cannot be seen elsewhere under 68c.

Gents' Goods.

Our "leaders" in this department are fully 25 per cent. under the cheapest of our competitors. Examine our S9c Dress Shirt.

Examine our 20c SHk Scarfs. Examine our 25c Gaure Underwear.

Examine our 25c Fancy Half Hose. Examine our 37c "Guyot " Suspenders,

The Palais Royal!

1117-19 Pennsylvania Avenue.

The "leaders" mentioned in above advertisement are guaranteed below the usual retail prices. An examination will prove the correctness of such assertion.
